

Welcome to our latest Newsletter.

Mann McGowan is an ever evolving company that strives to provide not only the best product but the highest levels of customer service too. Read on to find out about our exciting developments.

We have further enhanced our fire test evidence on a number of products within our range. The ACS1 and Tear Drop perimeter seal and 1703 Threshold seals, have successfully passed 60 minute fire testing, adding to our existing smoke, acoustic and cycle testing data.

FACTORY EXPANSION

We have been busy increasing our factory size over the last few months.

This development has allowed us to expand our manufacturing capabilities and the increased space means we are able to hold more stock of our range. We have also invested in new machinery in our production process which is increasing our output and reducing our lead times.

CPD & TRAINING

We are delighted to be able to offer CPD training courses in:

Passive Fire Protection in Buildings Upgrading Existing Fire Rated Timber Doors
